U.S. FLYERS REACH ENGLAND ALLIES SPLIT ON FOE TERMS

WILSON MAY SURRENDER MANY POINTS

Powers Lining Up in "Modification" and "No-Modification" Camps

President Confers With Other Americans on Enemy Treaty Situation

PARIS—Presentation of the German counter-proposals has created the possibility of again opening up the diplomatic struggles among the allies, which have been fought out during the last several months.

The German communication is remarkable in that it raised some points that are startlingly like those which the less extreme elements among the allies stood for during the early sessions of the conference. The amount which Germany agrees to pay in reparation ($25,000,000,000) for instance, is practically the exact figure which the Americans advocated inserting in the treaty.

Belief that Germany probably would be taken into the league of nations immediately, but for the unyielding opposition of France, was reiterated by certain quarters Saturday. It was admitted this opposition was so strong it cannot be overcome, but the feeling continues in other circles that more would be gained by placing Germany in the position of adhering to all the league's regulations than by leaving her on the outside, subject only to the present machinery to enforce the peace terms.

POWERS DIVIDED
Regarding the other counter-proposals, there is every indication that the different powers are already lining up in "modification" and "no-modification" camps. There is the strongest feeling in influential American circles that President Wilson has been forced to sacrifice several of the 14 points. It is considered certain that France will stand by the present terms. The stand to be taken by the other allies is likely to depend entirely upon how the particular subject under discussion affects them. The president is without support in other delegations, but final decision still rests with the big four.

The president conferred with the rest of the American delegation Saturday morning, concerning occupation of the Rhine district. Ambassador Davis was summoned from London to be present.

A secret plenary session was to be held at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon to hear the Austrian terms. This was the meeting postponed from Thursday under pressure from the smaller nations.

LEAGUE TERMED 'PEACE OF HATE'

Socialist Party Goes on Record Against Covenant of Nations

CHICAGO — Terming the league of nations a "peace of hate" and a "hideous farce," the executive committee of the socialist party late Friday closed a session here, by going on record against the document.

Protest to congress was made against alleged pogroms in Poland; sympathy was expressed for Russian soviets and a new program of "party policy" was composed.

Explaining ejection from the party of 25,000 Slavs, the committee said in a lengthy report that members expelled had "sought control" by methods "not used by comrades in the second revolution with utter disregard for the differences in conditions in this country."

285 PLANTS IN TORONTO CLOSED DOWN BY STRIKE

Industrial Enterprises Are Paralyzed by Big Walkout in Canada

189 Policemen in Winnipeg Discharged — Only Nine Officers on Force

TORONTO.—Toronto passed thru its first day of a general strike without experiencing, so far as the mass of its population was concerned, any of the disorder or inconvenience associated with such a paralysis of industry.

Between 7,500 and 8,000 union and non-union workers out of a total of over 20,000 were idle Friday; 235 factories in the metal trades were closed down; 50 shops where garments are made were idle and thru the strike of the carpenters, building operations on 40 jobs of varying proportions were seriously hampered. There was no disorder in the city, and beyond the assemblages of idle workers at the labor temple and at different points throughout the city, there was little outward evidence of a general strike.

WINNIPEG POLICEMEN OUT.
WINNIPEG, Man. — Winnipeg's police force Saturday consisted of nine men.

One hundred and eighty-nine officers were automatically discharged Friday, upon refusal to sign an agreement with the city, severing connection with labor. The police-men had voted approval of the demands in the strike here, but had not voted to go out themselves. An effort was made to have mounted police do the patrolling.

Returned soldiers asked Premier Norris to put collective bargaining in the provincial statutes. He was also asked to withdraw demands on the police. He promised action by 11 o'clock Saturday.

DRIVER KILLED IN AUTO RACES AT INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Motor Speedway. —Arthur Thurman, driving a Thurman Special, was killed and M. Molinaro, mechanic, suffered a fractured skull when their car turned over on the back stretch in the 45th lap of Saturday's Liberty sweepstakes race.

Thurman, who was driving his first big track race, lived in Washington, D. C. The car in which he met his death is a re-built Duesenberg. He was travelling at approximately 90 miles an hour when the car turned turtle on the treacherous back turn, and he was instantly killed.

Molinaro's condition is serious. Paced by Lieutenant Colonel J. Vincent and Eddie Rickenbacker, G. Vincent and Eddie Rickenbacker is a Green Packard car, 22 drivers

"hopped-off" in the Liberty sweepstakes at 11 a. m. After one turn of the course the race was on.

De Palma led at 100 miles. Bablot, second; L. Chevrolet, Frontenac, third; G. Chevrolet, Frontenac, fourth; Guyot, Ballot, fifth; L. Wagner, Ballot, sixth; Cooper, Stutz, seventh; Milton, Duesenberg, eighth; O'Donnell, Duesenberg, ninth; Wilcox, Peugeot, tenth. Time 1:04:43.9. Average 92.7.

This is a new track record. Previous record, 38.87 miles an hour, made by Resta in Peugeot in 1918.

N. C-4 PLANE SAFELY LANDS AT PLYMOUTH

Arrival of Flying Boat Marks American Navy's Systematic System to Overcome Obstacles of Ocean Flight

Aviators Cover 4,000 Miles in Trip From New York to British City—Given Great Ovation

WASHINGTON.—American flyers Saturday completed their journey from New York to England by air.

Admiral Knapp, at London, cabled the navy department in a message which reached here at 9:58 a. m. (Washington time), saying:

"N. C-4 arrived Plymouth. Knapp."

The great feat, accomplished by the N. C-4, which arrived at Plymouth Saturday morning, marked the climax of the navy's systematic system to overcome the obstacles of trans-Atlantic flying. Nearly 4,000 miles were covered by the naval aviators, their actual flying speed averaging between 70 and 80 miles an hour.

Here are the men who left Rockaway Beach May 8, and who as a result of their success, will go down in history as pioneers in blazing an air trail from the United States to England:

Commanding officer, Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read.
Pilot, Lieutenant E. F. Stone.
Pilot, Lieutenant (junior grade) W. Hinton.
Radio operator; Ensign H. C. Rodd.
Engineer, Chief Mechanic Rhodes, and Reserve pilot engineer Lieutenant J. L. Breeze.

When Commander Read let his big seaplane glide down on the water in Plymouth harbor, he finished a cruise of about 3,900 miles, a record over-water flight.

FLYING SPEED OF ENTIRE TRIP FAR ABOVE AVERAGE

His average flying speed for the entire trip was considerably above the average speed allowed in calculating the flight.

The log of the N. C-4's flight jumps follows:

Rockaway to Halifax, 540 miles, seven hours, 47 minutes actual flying time.

Halifax to Trepassy, 460 miles, eight hours, 59 minutes.

Trepassy to Horta, 1,200 miles, 15 hours and 18 minutes.

Horta to Ponta Delgada, 150 miles, one hour, 44 minutes.

Ponta Delgada to Lisbon, 800 miles, 9 hours, 44 minutes.

Lisbon to Ferrol, 300 miles, three hours, 45 minutes.

Ferrol to Plymouth, 450 miles, six hours, 59 minutes.

This would make the actual flying time of the N. C-4 in its record-breaking journey overseas 54 hours and 16 minutes.

COMRADES WAITING

PLYMOUTH, England — The American seaplane N. C-4 has passed Brest, only 140 miles from Plymouth according to a wireless from Lieutenant Commander Read, received here. The radio message said the plane was going good.

The crews of the seaplanes N. C-1 and N. C-3 were waiting to greet their comrades of the N. C-4. Smiling and smart, they arrived aboard the U. S. S. Rochester, looking like men returning from a pleasure jaunt, instead of sailors of the air who had experienced narrow escapes from death in trying to fly across the Atlantic.

Lieutenant Commander M. A. Mitchell, of Oklahoma City, pilot of the N. C-1, declared the trans-Atlantic flying problem was not one of motor power, but of navigation owing to uncertain weather conditions. He said he hoped an airship would eventually be built big enough to flight enroute if necessary and survive the buffeting of storms.

"Every man is eager to try again," declared D. C. McCulloch, of Newport, Pa.

Lieut. Barin, of Portland, Ore., said there was nothing sensational about the N. C-1's experiences; that their adventures seemed no different than those met with on an ordinary flight.

There was considerable excitement in Plymouth at approach of the American plane. Crowds were out Friday and were disappointed when word came the machine had been forced to descend on the Mondego river, Portugal. When Read wireless for information as to the best port within 300 miles in which to spend the night, he was advised to go to Vigo or Ferrol. He chose Ferrol, on the northern coast of Spain.

While the plane remained there, the American destroyers Harding and Tarbell stood by to render assistance.

LONDON LAUDS U.S. AIR FEAT

LONDON.—The Times and Chronicle Saturday lauded the feat of the American navy's aviators in flying across the Atlantic.

"We would like to have been the first to fly across the Atlantic," said the Times, "but as we did not, we are heartily glad it was the Americans who achieved it. This is a great performance. The suspicion that we en-tain unworthy jealousy is unfounded. There will be no sign of jealousy today when the port of the Pilgrim Fathers greets their children's children."

The Chronicle regrets any attempt to depreciate the achievement of Read and said:

"When all is said regarding the route of the flight and the help of ships along the way, the fact remains the Americans have crossed

URGES AIRSHIP BASES BE SET UP THROUGHOUT U. S.

General Menoher Tells Great Benefits of Using Army Dirigibles

Suggests Movement as Far Sighted Aerial Commerce Policy

WASHINGTON. — In suggesting establishment of army airship bases throughout the United States and its colonial possessions as a far sighted commercial policy and a boon to civil departments of the government in development of new enterprises, Gen. Menoher, director of the air service, pointed out many fields of activity in which army dirigible airships could be of great value.

"An army airship," Gen. Menoher said, "working, for instance, with the geological or forestry survey or the postoffice, could be housed on an army reservation and be handled by a party of soldiers in its visits for fuel, etc. It would cost much less to operate for the survey and would help keep the army airships employed in profitable work."

"The expenditure of time, gasoline, oil, and repairs can serve a double purpose if the airship is used to help in transportation, surveys, bandit hunting, or scientific researches."

"The civil use most vital to the army is to assist the department of the interior in making the maps of the geological survey, which are the basis of the progressive military map. The coast and geodetic survey can also use the dirigibles, especially over the vast coastal marshes. The dirigible can transport survey parties with instruments and supplies to the tops of mountains, to stations in wildernesses, and to small islands."

"The dirigible will be able to help the mail service. There are many logging and mining camps that could get better mail service if there were airships available. The Yukon valley could have excellent mail service in summer if it had an airship line."

"The ships along the way had nothing to do with the successful flight."

PUTS LEAGUE ON BASIS OF "BRASS TACT"

Wilson's Memorial Day Address Challenges U. S. Patriotism, Says His Friends

Senate Opponents. However, Meet President's Argument in Counter-Attack

WASHINGTON — President Wilson put the league of nations debate on a "brass tack" basis in his Memorial Day address in France, according to senators favoring the league.

They said he put the issue squarely up to the country which he said, in effect, that those who opposed the league are fighting for the return of the old order of things and predicted another war if they succeed in their fight against the league.

OPPOSITIONS HIT BACK
League opponents, however, met the president's expressed hope that he would see the day when opponents of the league would be ashamed of their opposition as they had opposed the union of the states, Senator Borah, leader of the opposition, said.

"I hope to see the day when those who are supporting the league and attempting to bring the United States under the control of foreign diplomats, will be as much ashamed as they had been among those Tories who sought to fasten Great Britain's domination on us forever in 1776."

League critics said the president's speech bore out their expectations as to the character of the campaign he will make for the league on his return.

"LEAGUE A BUTTRESS"

This campaign, they believe, will be based on the argument that the peace treaty is imperfect, but as good as could be obtained under the circumstances, that it must have a buttress, however, to make it stand up, and that the league is this buttress, without which the whole peace structure will fall, and chaos and further war ensue.

That the United States will have to make sacrifices which its people may find unpleasant, will be admitted it is predicted.

The people who are asked to decide, the forecast is, whether they count these sacrifices greater than world peace.

League advocates in the senate Saturday agreed this will be the line of argument, supplemented by denials that the league covenant will entail any such sacrifices or invasions of American sovereignty as its critics assert.

PREPARE QUICK WORK OF REPEALING LUXURY TAXES

WASHINGTON.—While the senate Saturday continued its rest, the house prepared to make short work of the so-called luxury taxes. A resolution to repeal these taxes—already favorably reported from committee—was expected to go thru without much debate. The agricultural appropriation also awaited final disposition.

Military and naval affairs committees continued their work on their respective appropriations, while Chairman Esch of the house interstate commerce committee, called a meeting for brief consideration of the resolution to return the wires.

ENTERED FOR FLIGHT

LONDON.—The "Black Kangaroo," an airplane with a wing speed of 78 feet and an average speed of 100 miles per hour, has been entered in the England to Australia flight, it was announced Saturday. The crew expects to start either from Hull or Leeds within the next ten days. The plane is equipped with two 250-horsepower Rolls-Royce motors.

DELPHOS MAN BURNED

DELPHOS.—Severe burns were sustained by Stanley W. Point, employee of the Clover Leaf shops when an acetylene hose which he was operating burst. The flames struck his right wrist.

WILL RENT TO NEGROES

NEW YORK.—Landlords fighting rent strikers, announced rent 5,000 vacated apartments to negroes.

FITTING SERVICE MEMORIAL DAY

Tribute Paid to Men Who Served in Nation's Three Wars

Lima Friday honored in befitting fashion the memory of her many sons who gave their lives for the country in the World's war. Hundreds visited the two city cemeteries and those in the outlying districts to decorate the graves of those who served in the Civil war, the Spanish-American war and those who died in the service at home during the recent war.

In the afternoon a large crowd attended the mass meeting at Memorial hall where a beautiful program was carried out in memory of the soldier dead.

Those who survived the great world struggle and came back alive spent the day with their families and friends in joyful thanksgiving.

Picnics were many and thousands sought the cooling shelter of McCullough's lake where amusements were aplenty. The day closed at the lake with an elaborate fireworks display.

Hundreds of pleasure seeking citizens journeyed to Indian Lake where fishing was good and still another thousand sought the national pastime furnished at Murphy street park as a fitting way to spend the afternoon.

Several prominent Lima men took part in the Memorial Day exercises at West Cairo, among these being Ralph Mackenzie, Lieutenant John Cover and Earl Hope.

MEN HELD HERE HAD BAD RECORD

Police Release Them, However,
Having No Specific Charge
Against Them

A communication was received Saturday morning by Chief of Police Roush from the department of justice of the bureau of criminal identification at Leavenworth, Kansas, concerning the records of Harry Dorsey, Ernest Minton and John Casey who were arrested here a few days ago on suspicion. The letter states that Casey has been known under the aliases of Joseph Reynolds, Joe Reynolds, John O'Brien and Albert Reynolds.

Casey has a penitentiary record which shows that he was received in the Missouri State penitentiary at Jefferson City, under sentence of six years for attempted robbery. Harry Dorsey is known according to the letter under the names of Harry Driscoll, Noke Kennedy, Snake Kennedy and H. Clark. When Chief Roush asked the men about their former records they denied ever serving in any penitentiary but after he read the letter to the men they admitted that the records supplied were correct, the chief says.

Having no charge against the men at the present time Chief Roush released them Saturday morning on a promise that they would leave Lima immediately. The finger prints taken in Lima led to the identification of the two men. No information was given concerning the record of Minton.

NATION LEAGUE QUARTERS OPEN

Temporary Seat of World Society Established in London

LONDON—Temporary headquarters of the league of nations has been opened here with democratic simplicity. It consists of a barren suite of rooms in a building near the house of commons. There is a suit of half a dozen typists, a few desks and one telephone.

Lord Colum Crichton-Stuart, secretary to Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general of the league, is in charge. Drummond is preparing the provisional scheme of organization and selecting the personnel of the secretariat. Among the first duties of the secretariat will be to arrange the first meeting of the league in Washington and appoint certain commissions, which must be set up within 15 days after ratification of the treaty, such as the Saar boundary commission.

The first public announcement issued at league headquarters outlines the present activities. It states that a number of persons of different nationalities who have distinguished themselves in international work, have been asked to assist in working out the plans for creation of the secretariat.

"Nothing could be more encouraging than the response of these people," the statement said. "It is the first and finest augury of the success of the league."

Plans have been made to remove the headquarters to a more suitable place soon.

SPORT SNAP
: SHOTS :ROCKPORT PROVES
EASY FOR LOCALS

A hefty wallop from the bat of Joey Egan clinched the Memorial Day game, between the Lima Independents and the Rockford Maroons, for the Lima aggregation making their first win of the season. With favorable weather the setting for the game could not have been better. The score at the end of the contest stood 6 to 1 in favor of Lima. Sensational playing by Harrison in the left field stall of the locals made the entire game interesting to the crowd of 1,000 fans.

The game started off with Kennedy, second baseman for the visitors batting. Kennedy landed a hot one which Pierce attempted to stop but the liner proved too hot for the twirler and Kennedy reached first safely. Pierce then staged a comeback by striking two of the three following men out and catching Black who holds down the first sack for the visitors, at the initial station.

With the exception of the eighth inning there were at least four of the locals stepped to the plate to try their lunch with the elusive pill in each inning. In the fifth, seven men batted and six batted in the sixth round. In the fifth inning Harrison succeeded in making first on a clean hit to right field, Wentz made second on an error by Anderson, of the Maroons, Roush was hit by a pitched ball and the bases were full. Egan went out on a fly to first base, and Costello struck out. Hike knocked a fly which Kennedy dropped allowing Harrison and Wentz to score. Malloy ended the inning by striking out.

Lima seemed to be hitting the pill in the right places and there were many clean hits during the game. Also the ability of the Lima squad to hit the ball in pinches, together with timely errors by the Maroons were mostly responsible for the Lima victory.

The Rockford Maroons will be in Lima for two more days with a game scheduled for Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Maroons claim that two of their regular men were not here Friday but will be here for the next two games. Pierce showed great form in pulling himself out of bad holes. He struck out nine men. Hike is scheduled to hold down the twirler's mound Saturday and Sunday's pitcher has not been announced.

Two Yale varsity men have been made Chevaliers of the Legion of Honor by the president of France for bravery while serving with the American naval aviation unit at Dunkirk. They are Artemus L. Gates, football captain-elect in 1918, and Edward de Cerna, well known as a sprinter on Yale track teams.

Gates, who is of the class of 1918, came from Clinton, Ia., and played tackle in 1916 and 1917, and was sent to the United States naval aviation station at Dunkirk, and a month before the armistice was taken prisoner by the Germans. He received the rank of lieutenant commander, one of the few of this grade in naval aviation, and has also been awarded the Croix de Guerre and the British Distinguished Flying Cross.

De Cerna served under Gates at Dunkirk, and is an ensign. He has the War Cross with the gold palm.

Dear Patrons:—
Today and tomorrow we have the rare privilege to offer for your delectation a feature picture which we honestly and conscientiously believe to be exactly 100% perfect.
Mr. Keenan's acting in "The Silver Girl" is unquestionably the best he has ever done. This rugged Nevada miner, staunch in soul and heart by years of toil in open places gave his all to his "Silver Girl" wife. The lure of New York life tempted her sorely—she was almost ensnared—but duty forbade—and then love came!
You may take our word for it; the entire family will enjoy this splendid picture.

NOTES ON THE GAME

They did it and in good fashion at that. The much touted Rockport outfit fell before the onslaughts of the slugging Independents and it looks like one long line of victories from now on.

Costello of the Rainbows received a big ovation from the fans when he took his place at the bat. The fans willingly will forget his failure to clout the pill in the initial game because of his past endeavors before the recent Hun unpleasantness when he performed admirably for two seasons.

Old Joey Egan was there with the willow and he clouted in the first two tallies of the game for the Lima bunch. Joey was a little wild in the fifth when Nordquist popped one down to him but no serious damage resulted.

Jimmy Harrison was much in the limelight with his acrobatic catches in left field and also at the plate. He landed two safely and got a complimentary to first.

The Independents appeared in old time fashion and aided Pierce in getting out of several holes and connected when runs were available.

Pierce was in good form again yesterday as the box score would indicate and he succeeded in keeping the few hits scattered.

The visitors made a nice appearance and while two of their best players failed to arrive on time for the contest they managed fairly well. These two men will be on hand for the other two games however and the locals are expecting just a little more opposition.

Reynolds filled right field for the Independents (not Charley Reynolds of old) and he performed nicely.

WAMBY'S SWATTING LEAGUE SENSATION

Bill Wambgans, quiet second baseman of the Indians, looms up as the batting sensation of the year just now. Wamby was never suspected of being a slugger bold until he got started a few weeks ago and in two weeks was hitting at a .400 clip and leading the league. Although he slipped below .400 he continued to lead the circuit. Unless he slumps he'll be among the leaders for some time.

RESOLUTION VOICES RECOGNITION OF SALVATION ARMY'S WORK

WASHINGTON — (Special) — America's gratitude for the work of the Salvation Army in France and in Belgium was voiced today in a resolution introduced in the United States senate by Senator James E. Watson of Indiana, conferring upon Miss Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in America, the honorary rank of colonel in the United States army, and further recommended that a Distinguished Service Medal be awarded to her.

Serator Watson spoke of the intimate service that had been rendered by the Salvation Army to the American soldiers. This consisted of sewing on buttons, distributing doughnuts and giving advice to the men who sought it at times and under conditions when it was most appreciated. He told how the Salvation Army has been forced to borrow $25,000 in order to start its work during the war, and that from this beginning with twenty workers sent with the American troops, the Salvation Army activities grew to 1,120 working women and men too old for service back of the trenches, and 410 huts and hotels.

"I regard it as only a just and grateful act that the congress of the United States should officially recognize the invaluable service rendered among our troops in France by the Salvation Army, of which Miss Evangeline Booth is the American commander," said the senator. "When the United States entered the war the Salvation Army was ready. Across the seas they were in the van with the advancing army, and many times were under shell fire. Long

Gain Flesh By Drinking Water With Systoxem

A very easy and pleasant method for gaining flesh and rounding out the body is now advocated by well-known authorities. Simply drink plenty of good water and take a little Systoxem after meals. This simple method is guaranteed to aid nature in adding healthy tissue, weight and strength to the human body in two weeks' time in many instances. It supplies the blood and system with flesh and strength building substances now known to be lacking and often wholly lost in the modern foods we eat. Thousands of thin, delicate and run-down folks will naturally be benefited. One well-known writer on body building, Dr. J. H. Schenck, says, "It is just like giving sunshine and water to a withering plant." The ordinary city drinking water here is considered pure and the Systoxem is now obtainable at good drug stores without a doctor's prescription. It is not being a secret remedy.

NOTE—Hunter's Drug Store, H. F. Vorkamp and other leading druggists of this city report tremendous increases in the sale of Systoxem since it has become known that this compound and ordinary drinking water help the blood turn the food we eat into solid, healthy tissue, and also induce a feeling of renewed energy, strength and power of endurance.

YOU NEED NOT SUFFER FROM CATARRH

But You Must Drive It Out of

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing difficult breathing and other discomforts. Real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs. This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface.

Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S., which completely routs from your blood the Catarrh germs, for which it is a perfect antidote. ## "Oil's Right With the World"

NEVER SINCE THE TIME of the first "oil excitement" in Pennsylvania, when people who hardly knew what money looked like became rich overnight, has there been any such activity in the oil producing districts as that which prevails today, says the Dayton News. Not only in the oil fields, but throughout the whole country there is a tendency to "go wild over oil." Speculation in oil stocks never has been more general than it is now. Reports of tremendous winnings are rife in all the stock exchanges; in the curb markets frenzied men are buying oil stocks with an eagerness indicating a general belief that there is no possibility of losing; trains bound for Oklahoma and Texas are crowded with men who expect to be millionaires within a month. New towns are being built where there was nothing but sand and sagebrush a few weeks ago. Twenty-story business blocks and sky-scraping hotels are going up in straggling villages that have been asleep for thirty years. People are renting their musty parlors for $10 a night. Dallas, Fort Worth and other cities within a radius of 150 miles of the oil center are filled with surging crowds of men and women who have rushed in from all sections of the country. Old burying grounds are being bought for fabulous prices. New graves are "coming in" almost daily, and everywhere throughout the region of big strikes the wildest scenes imaginable are being staged. Almost every morning now dozens of "old-timers" who have for years been trying to ward off starvation awake to find themselves surrounded by men who beg for the privilege of handing them bales of money. A few days ago a man who had just come from the Texas oil region told a little story that was typical of the experiences that many of the people down there are having. There was a poor old man and his wife who for thirty years had been working hard for the barest kind of an existence. Oil in great quantities was struck on land adjoining the few acres to which they had managed to get a title, and there was an immediate rush for their holdings. The shock that the old man sustained when the first offer for his land was made caused him to collapse. When his widow was asked, after she had sold out, what she intended to do with her suddenly acquired wealth, she said:

"WELL, I GUESS I'll travel. I want to go to Dallas, and mebbey I'll keep clear on to San Antonio. And I'm goin' to buy me a set of false teeth, too."

IT MUST NOT BE supposed that all the people who are rushing to Texas and Oklahoma are becoming millionaires. Dust-covered and footsore men who went there in Pullman cars are walking away, and, while we hear much of the winnings that are made by speculators in oil stocks, they are greatly outnumbered by the losers who look sad and say nothing.

THERE IS NO probability that the excitement over oil will be quick to subside. Oil is becoming increasingly important in industrial activities. Owing to the advent of the gas engine the demand for oil has grown and spread enormously. In spite of the greatly increased production oil prices have advanced and it is probable that they will continue to advance. It is expected, and probably the expectation is not unjustified, that oil will presently be used instead of coal as fuel on most of the on-going ships, and with development of the airplane and the continued and ever widening use of the automobile there is every reason for believing that the consumption of oil will be greater and greater from year to year. He is a lucky man who has an oil well in his back yard, even if it happens to be a little one.

Opinion Expressed

RESULTS OF AN investigation made by a New York firm concerning the general feeling of the country toward government ownership or control of railroads is interesting. This concern asked some 13,000 newspaper editors to furnish information from their sections on the opinions existing. Of this number almost 6,000 filled answers.

THE QUESTIONNAIRES returned show clearly that the people want the rails turned back to their owners. They do not want government dabbling in any respect. In not a single section of the country are the people said to disfavor the return of the properties. A correspondingly large percentage favor the return that competitive service may be restored. The sentiment is shown to be overwhelmingly against government ownership and likewise is against extension of time for government control.

STORY IN FULL OF SEA FLIGHT

The actual flight of the N.C.-4 planes started from Rockaway Beach May 3, when the N.C.-1, N.C.-3 and N.C.-4 hopped off for Halifax. The N.C.-1 and N.C.-3 made the Halifax station on scheduled time completing the 540-mile jump without trouble. Lieutenant Commander Read's machine, however, was forced to alight near Chatham, Mass., and after riding out a rough sea, put into Chatham Bay for motor repairs.

Two days later the N.C.-1 and N.C.-3 flew from Halifax to Trepassey while on May 14 the N.C.-4 completed her voyage to Halifax, making the distance in four hours and ten minutes, an average of 85 miles per hour. The following day Commander Read brought his machine to Trepassey, arriving just as Commander Towers and Bellinger were trying to rise for the jump to the Azores.

The planes left Trepassey for the Azores at sunset on May 16. Read, with the "jinx machine" was the first to leave the water, but after circling the bay for 16 minutes, alighted. Following tactics adopted by Pilot Hinton, of the N.C.-4, Bellinger and Towers succeeded in leaving the water, followed by the N.C.-4 and the trip to the Azores, 1,250 miles away, was on. The N.C.-4 arrived at Horta after 15 hours and 18 minutes of flying. The N.C.-1 came down near Flores, a wreck, while the N.C.-3 was forced down on account of fog about 205 miles from her destination, arriving at Ponta Delgada after a surface run, too badly damaged to fly further.

An eager watch for the triumphant Yankee seaplane was maintained here and crowds rushed to vantage points when word came that she had been sighted. She was given a rousing welcome.

On May 20, the N.C.-4 flew from Horta to Ponta Delgada, 160 miles, in one hour, 44 minutes. Seven days later Read hopped off for Lisbon. The distance, 810 miles, was covered in nine hour and 43 minutes, making the actual flying time from Trepassey to Lisbon, 2,150 miles, just 26 hours and 45 minutes.

On May 30, the N.C.-4 started for Plymouth, but was forced to land on the Mondego river, 100 miles from the Tagus, where the start was made. A few hours later she proceeded to Ferrol, Spain, where the crew remained Friday night.

The trip from Ferrol to Plymouth was completed Saturday.

ROUSING WELCOME
 PLYMOUTH, England.—Completing its great flight over the Atlantic, the American seaplane N. C.-4 swept into the harbor of Plymouth at 2:25 p. m. Saturday.

The huge ship of the skies, under direction of Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read, her skipper on the whole historic air voyage, left Ferrol, Spain, on her last lap of the trip shortly after 6 o'clock Saturday morning. She spent the night at Ferrol, after having been forced by engine trouble to descend first in a river 100 miles north of Lisbon, from which point she started for Plymouth early Friday.

A eager watch for the triumphant Yankee seaplane was maintained here and crowds rushed to vantage points when word came that she had been sighted. She was given a rousing welcome.

TEXAS NOT ALARMED OVER VILLA'S THREATENED RISING

DALLAS, Tex. — The Villa-Angeles proposed Mexican revolution is causing little concern along the border according to reports here. The general belief expressed by state officials, American consuls in the border towns and department of justice agents who are following the case, is that Villa does not possess sufficient military strength to attempt an extensive operation.

"No excitement over Villa's reported manifesto, declaring General Angeles provisional president of Mexico, exist here," American consul Blocker at Eagle Pass, declared. Governor Hobby, of Texas said state officials were not worried over the situation.

"Alleged manifestoes of bandit leaders are of no importance whatever," Mexican Consul Flores, at Fort Worth, asserted. "Villa has no organized army."

Meanwhile, Colonel Dario Silva who first made public the alleged revolutionary manifesto, said at his office in Dallas the plans of the revolutionaries will continue.

Silva, former secretary to Villa and a colonel on his staff, is the self-styled mouthpiece in the United States for Villa propaganda.

"I am now and expect to continue to be the best informed person in the United States about the new Villa-Angeles movement," he declared.

"Unless my line of communication is interrupted, I expect to have an important announcement to make in the near future."

Silva, who at one time was held by department of justice agents for alleged plotting in El Paso, now is said to be under surveillance of the department's agents. He was a member of the original Villa expedition of nine which entered Mexico in 1913, starting the Villa movement.

Team of Horses Without a Home
 For sale, trade, barter or exchange one team of horses for which the owner does not vouch nor of which does he wish to retain possession, is the summary of a suit filed in common pleas court Saturday morning. John Van De Mark, farmer of Allen county, now has the team which he states he purchased and now disclaims ownership.

The former owner, A. J. Baber, refused to harbor the animals it is alleged by Van De Mark, when they were returned to him. In turn he took them back to the present owner. The tractious team is now in the stables on the Van De Mark farm and of no use to him, is the contention of the petition filed.

The horses failed to measure up to the standards ascribed by Baber, Van De Mark alleges and they have been in transit between the two farms, and the owner now is undecided what disposition to make of them.

Van De Mark seeks to recover the purchase price of $437.50.

BEEF DROPS SOON

Prices to Be Lowered, Meat Packers Announce

CHICAGO—Beef prices will be lowered shortly, according to the American Meat Packers' Association. In a statement here Saturday, the association said the decrease will be noticeable within a few days.

The probable extent of the decline was not given.

There are several reasons for the decline, the statement said. "Cheap" grass-fed cattle are now moving to market, exports of beef from the United States have practically ceased. The government has stopped buying.

Depletion of European herds and unprecedented demand will keep prices above normal for some time, it was said.

Pork and mutton are mentioned only as being now higher than beef.
